

International Day for Education

MARCOM and CR Committee of ICMA International in collaboration with National Peace Committee for Interfaith Harmony (NPCIH) & Federation of Trainers is organizing a session on "International Day for Education".

Agenda

"Education is a Fundamental Right for Every Human of the World" The event will focus on the importance of education as a universal human right, emphasizing the need for equitable access to quality education for all. It will explore how education drives global peace and sustainable development, with a special focus on the evolving educational landscape from traditional literacy to artificial intelligence.

Event Highlights

- Keynote speeches from prominent educators and experts in technology and education.
- Panel discussions on education as a fundamental human right and the role of AI in shaping the future of learning.
- Workshops and networking opportunities for educators, technology professionals, and community leaders to collaborate.

Expected Outcome

- Increased awareness of the importance of universal education.
- Strengthened collaboration between educationalists and technologists.
- A call to action to ensure equitable access to education for all, regardless of geographical or socio-economic barriers.
