How to Generate Unique Document Identification Number (UDIN)

As you are well aware that ICMA has officially launched the Unique Document Identification Number (UDIN) system, marking a pivotal step in our journey toward enhanced professional excellence, transparency, and accountability.

All authorized practicing members shall be required to generate and mention UDIN on the following auditors' reports issued by the practicing Cost and Management Accountants w.e.f. July 01, 2025:

- Auditors' Report on General Purpose Financial Statements;
- Auditors' Review Report on Interim Financial Information; and
- Auditors' Review Report on Statement of Compliance with the Code of Corporate Governance, both for public and corporate sector.

To guide you through the complete process of UDIN generation, the Technical Support & Practice Development (TSPD) Committee, in collaboration with the National CPD Committee and Quality Assurance Board of ICMA, has organized this webinar, which will provide you with a step-by-step understanding of the UDIN system, its objectives, practical demonstration of the portal, and compliance requirements essential for all practicing members.
